Shea Writing and Training Solutions to be Named one of the Houston Fast 100

The Houston Business Journal recently announced Shea Writing and Training Solutions (Shea) as one of the area's 100 Fastest Growing Businesses. Shea Writing and Training Solutions is also an active and proud member of the Women's Business and Enterprise Alliance (WBEA).

"I am so excited to have our company recognized by my colleagues and the Houston Business Journal for our accomplishments," commented Evalyn Shea, President of SWTS. "We have worked hard in our field to become a respected and valuable resource for businesses that are looking for reliable documentation and hands-on training for their employees. To have our growth and success recognized in this manner is a wonderful validation of our commitment to customer service and excellence."

Shea provides business with a variety of services to such companies as BP, Cheniere, Chevron, ExxonMobil, Hess, Panhandle Energy, and many others. Services to clients include training solutions, documentation and training project management, scribing, writing and editing, and RFP and proposal support.

All of this is accomplished with a dedicated staff located in Houston. "The staff at Shea is committed to providing the best possible service, with an eye towards value for the customer," said Ms. Shea. "I am very proud of that fact."

The Houston Business Journal's list of Fast 100 Growing Companies will be released at an awards ceremony on Friday September 14, 2007. Publication of that special report will also be available that day including profiles of some of the companies honored in this way. The decision making process will also be revealed in that issue of Houston Business Journal.
